

Acknowledgement

To those who have visited us and comforted us; To those who have supported us with food, money, time, items; To the Christian family for your prayers and support; To our relatives, neighbors and friends; and to all who made invaluable contribution in various ways to see this journey to accord James Ngugi a deserving sendoff; Kindly accept this as a personal acknowledgment of thanks from us all.
“ May you live every day of your life, Loving each day that you live!”

Tribute from Your Loving Wife

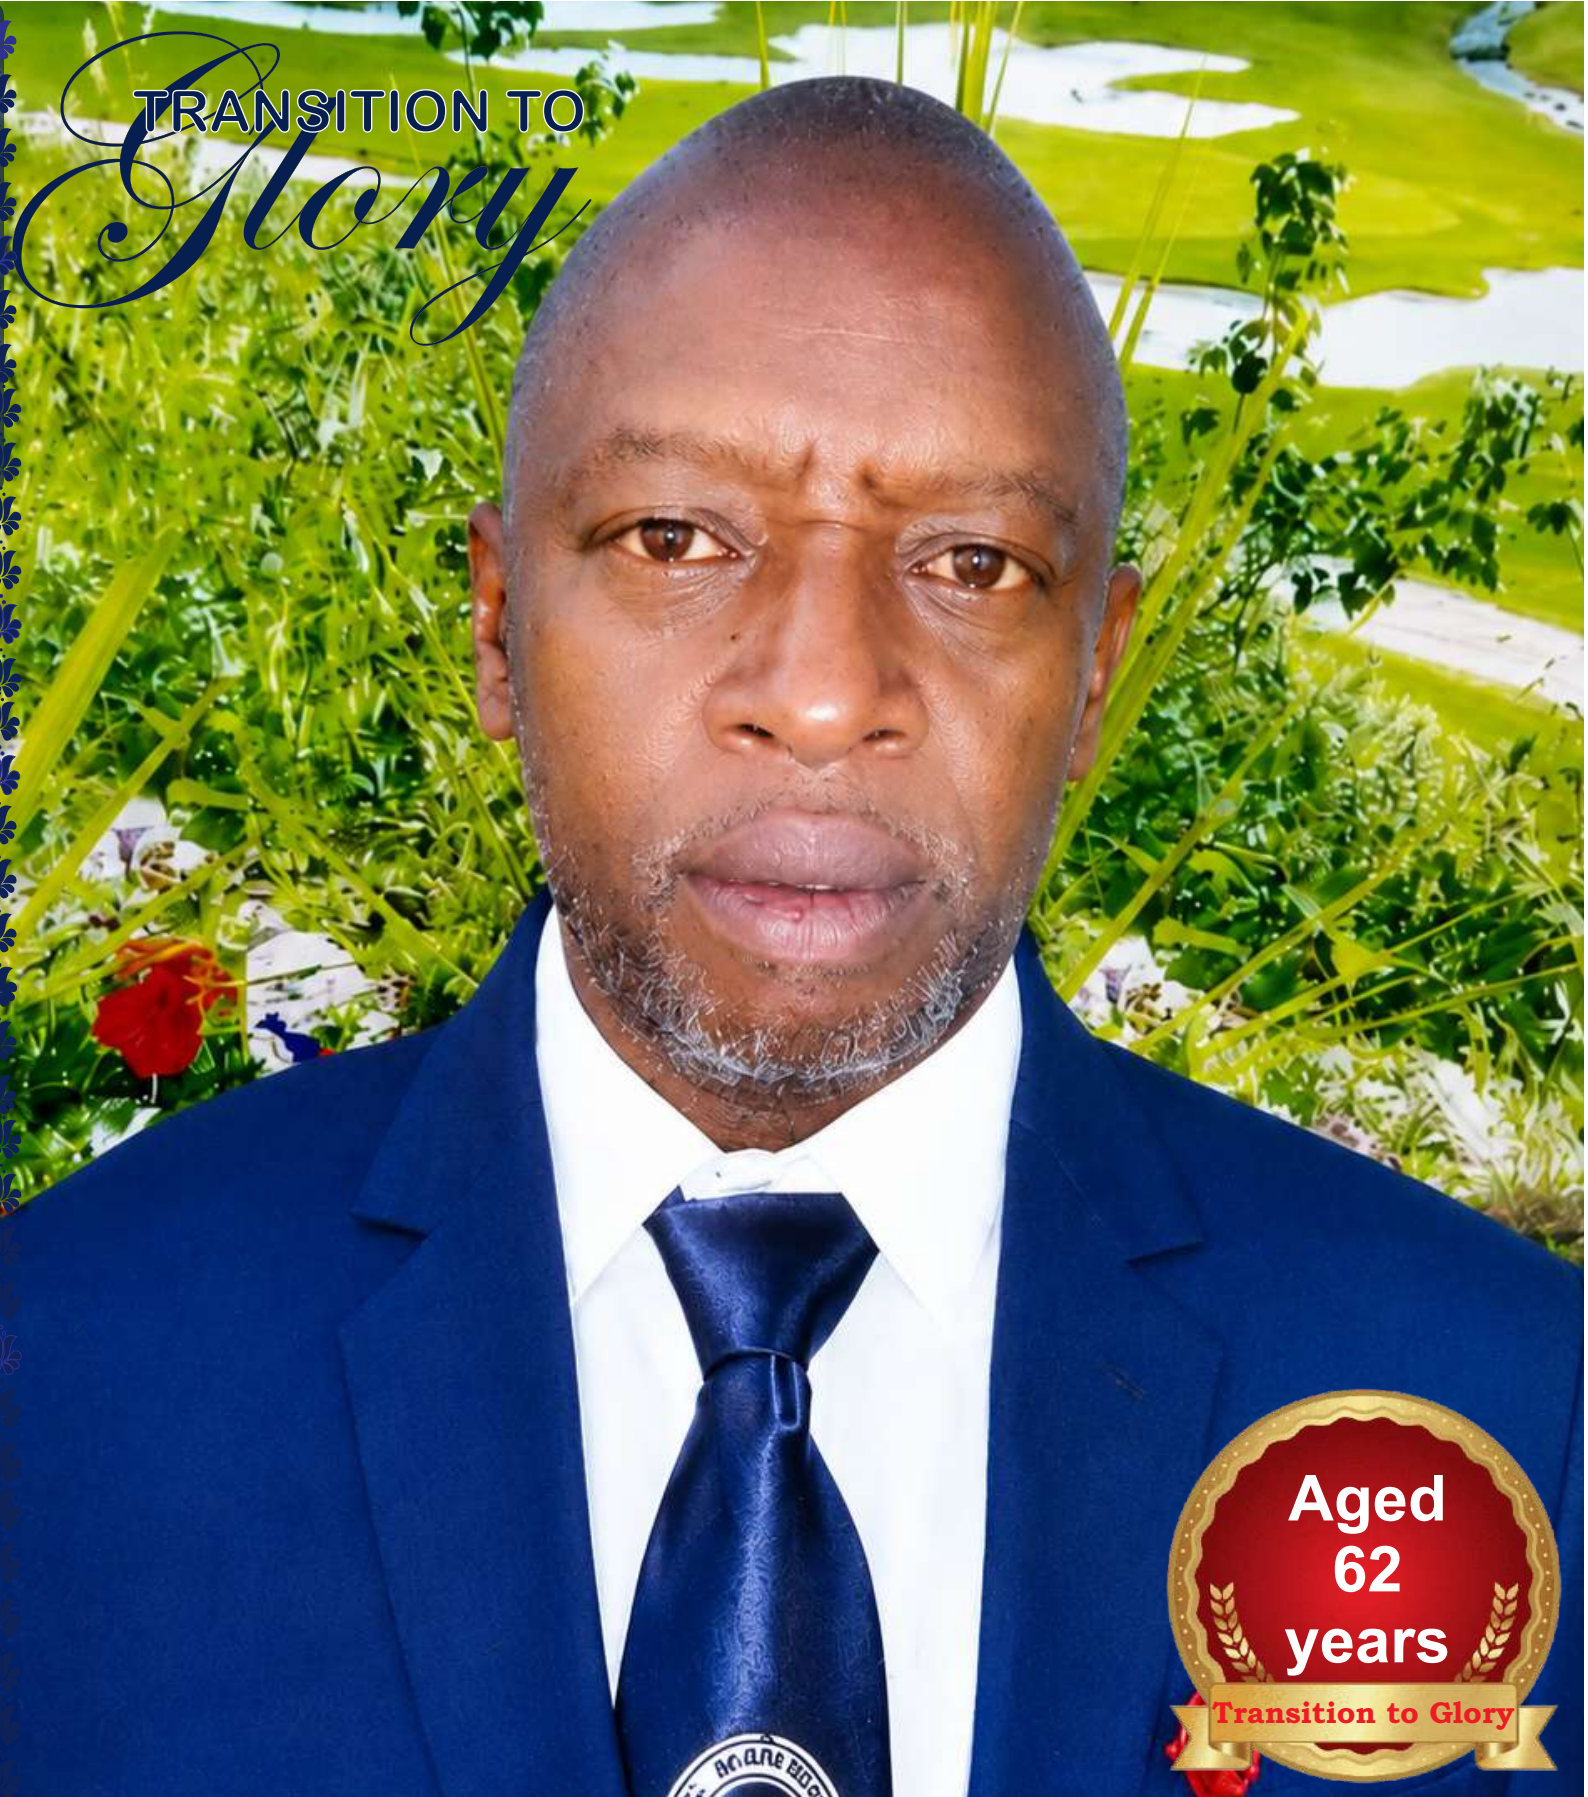

My dear James, You were more than my husband; you were my best friend, my confidant, and my greatest blessing. Through the years, we shared laughter, challenges, dreams, and countless precious memories. Your love, strength, and unwavering support carried our family through every season of life. Though you are no longer by my side, your presence remains in my heart every day. I am grateful for the life we built together and for the love that will never fade. Thank you for being the wonderful man that you were and for loving us so completely. Rest in peace, my beloved James. You will always be my greatest treasure, and I will love you forever.

Tribute from Your Daughter

Dad, Thank you for being the foundation of our family and for teaching me the values of kindness, honesty, and hard work. Your guidance shaped the person I am today, and your love gave me the confidence to face life's challenges. You celebrated my successes, encouraged me during difficult times, and always believed in me. The lessons you taught me and the memories we shared will remain with me forever. Although I miss you deeply, I find comfort in knowing that your legacy lives on in all of us. Thank you for being an extraordinary father. I will carry your love and wisdom in my heart always. Rest peacefully, Dad. I loved James. You will always be my greatest treasure, and I will love you

Tribute from Your Grandson

Grandpa James, Thank you for all the special moments we shared. I will always remember your stories, your laughter, and the way you made every visit feel special. You taught me important lessons through your words and your example, and I am proud to be your grandson. Your kindness, patience, and love will never be forgotten. Even though I miss seeing you, I know that the memories we created together will stay with me for the rest of my life. Thank you for being such a wonderful grandfather. You will always have a special place in my heart. Rest in peace, Grandpa. I love and miss you dearly. forever.

Eulogy of the Late Ngigi Mugo

BIOGRAPHY

James Ngugi Muchiri was born in 1964 to Jeremiah Muchiri Mutiga-iri and Monicah Mbaire Muchiri. He was born in Karuri, Banana, and was the fourth child in the family. His siblings were Pricillar Njoki Mwaura, David Komu, John Njoroge, Patrick Karanja, Hannah Wangari, and Bidan Kinyanjui.

CHILDHOOD

Like many children of his time, James Ngugi helped his parents with household duties, including herding livestock and other family responsibilities.

EDUCATION

His parents moved from Karuri Banana to Karigu-ini, Nyanduma, in 1967. He began his education at Gachika Primary School in 1970, where he studied until 1978.

INITIATION

James Ngugi underwent traditional initiation rites in 1981.

WORK

After completing his education, he engaged in various occupations including farming, livestock keeping, and business activities. He continued working diligently until his retirement.

CHURCH LIFE

James Ngugi willingly embraced the Christian faith. He joined the Catholic Church, attended catechism classes, and was baptized on 4 July 1978 by Rev. Fr. Decauza at Kagwe Mission. On the same day, he received the Sacrament of Holy Communion. He joined the church choir and served with great dedication. He was the moderator of the Holy Rosary Karigu-ini Choir and also served as a parish choir moderator. He later joined the Catholic Men Association (CMA) and was officially enrolled on 24 November 2018. He was a committed and active member who served faithfully. He also served in the Pioneer Total Abstinence Association and was a member of the St. Agnes Small Christian Community.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY

James Ngugi met his beloved wife Mary Njeri Ngugi in 1986, and they were married according to Kikuyu traditional customs. They were blessed with their first child, Simon Muchiri, in 1987. Later, God blessed them with three more children: Monicah Mbaire, Agnes Wanjiru, and Joseph Mwai. The couple solemnized their marriage in the Catholic Church on 3 February 1990 at St. Mary of the Holy Rosary Karigu-ini, officiated by Rev. Fr. Cretus Ngugi.

HIS FINAL DAYS

James Ngugi was in good health and attended his usual activities on 2 June 2026. He spent time with his St. Agnes Small Christian Community during a seminar and also attended Holy Mass as he normally did. After Mass, at about 8:00 p.m., he left and began his journey home. A missing person report was later made at Mung'ere Police Post. On the morning of 3 June 2026, at approximately 8:30 a.m., he was found lying near his home. Sadly, he had passed away. May God grant eternal rest to James Ngugi. May he rest in peace.

James Ngugi passed away at the age of 62 years. He leaves behind his beloved wife Mary Njeri, four children (two sons and two daughters), and ten grandchildren.
Rest in peace, our son, our father, our beloved James Ngugi Muchiri.
